This three-day workshop is designed for those staff members who have completed the five-day Instructional Skills Workshop. It is not a review of the five days but rather an extension and introduction to new and exciting skills and strategies. These new skills and strategies will be pursued with the underlying goal of meeting the specific classroom needs of each participant. Areas of concentration are

- Grouping of students for instructional purposes
- Test construction and administration
- Efficient time management
- Instructional skills refresher

Register through My Learning Plan - Go to Madison Oneida Catalog